

Call Upon Me

Psalm 50:15 & Romans 10:13

H18

Words & music by:
Dennis P. German

1. When we are a-fflic-ted with many a pain. Temptations en-tice us a-gain and a-gain
2. When life, like a fickle sea, the tempest does rage. Our flesh, like an enemy, the battle does wage.
3. Each day brings a certainty of worldly al-lure. With eyes that are never full temptation is sure.

Though others for-sake us, and give us no aid. remember that unto us a promise was
In times of such helplessness all hope tends to fade.
Desires of a lustfull heart about us arrayed.

Chorus:

made. And call upon me in the day of trou-ble and I will and call up-on me

de-li-ver thee, and thou shalt glo-ri-fy me. For who-so-ev-er shall de-li-ver thee

call up-on the name of the Lord shall be saved. Shall be saved.
the name of shall be saved shall be saved.
