

The Living God Is Living Still

Words & music by:
Dennis P. German

D G A D G

Well, Ab-ra-ham, the friend of God, he listened to his voice. And tho' he could not
The times have changed and people too are different as can be. Yet, still our needs are Well, you may have your ev'ry need met, plen-ty and to spare. Your fu-ture looks so see him he trusted him an-y- way. In spite of all he saw or felt he ma-ny though most of them the same. But, though the times and people change this ro-sey, and you've made it on your own. And you may think you're pretty good and had no other choice but to follow God's un-erring lead thru' out each and ev'-ry day.

D G A D G

A D G D A D

truth shall always be; that all we want or e-ver need is thru' Jesus' precious name. for the poor you care. But you'll fall far short of God's demands being empty and a-lone.

A D G A D

And like him, brother Mueller heard his word, in the ho-ly book, as he read.
Then all we need to do is open our mouth and he'll fill it from up on high
But, now is given free sal-va-tion if in your heart you will just believe

The Living God Is Living Still

- 2 -

Chorus:

A D G D A

He put his trust in each precious word and this is what he said. The living
His heart is touched by our ev'-ry woe and he hears us when we cry.
just put your trust in Je- sus Christ, e- ter- nal life to re- ceive.

G D

God the living God is living still. is li-ving still and he is looking for a people whose heart is perfect in his sight. to do great things to do great things and show his might The living God the living God is living still!

A G

D A D

and show his might

♣ After last chorus only

G A

The living God the living God is living still!
the living God the living God