

Heaven Must Be Better

Hebrews 11:40

Words & music by:
Dennis P. German

Have you e- ver con- sidered that the blessings we have here are nothing when compared to
We should always re- member that our home is up a- bove. and as we set our hearts on Just i- ma- gine the host of saints, as we bow to the king. We'll cast our crowns down at his what the Lord's prepared up there. I just can't wait to take my place in a mansion built for high, send treasures out of love we'll lay up there rewards, unknown, that one day we all shall feet and all his praises sing. So, labour not for things that fade but last for e- ter- ni-

Chorus:

me. For, heaven must be better than the best we have down here. For, God thru' Christ
see. ty became a man to make a way for us to reach that land so bright and fair es- caping sins just wage. But the best that we will find up there is our Lord and sa- viour Je- sus.